(a) the reasons for the liquidation and increase of the defaulters of credit Co-operative Societies;

(b) whether Government generally give any concession to the defaulters;

(a) if so, the ground on which it is given;

(d) whether any liberal policy is observed in granting such concessions to the really depressed and minority communities among the backward classes such as the Valans, Velans, Arayans, Kosavans, Chalians, etc.?

Mr. K. Narayana Menon (Registrar of Co-operative Societies).—(a) Increase of defaulters in credit Co-operative Societies is mainly due to the present economic depression. Want of education in thrift and self-help among the members has also contributed much towards this increase. Societies are generally liquidated if they are not doing any useful work.

(b) The Government do not give any concession to the defaulters of Societies.

(c) and (d). In view of the answer to (b) the questions do not arise.
